2017 Culture Celebration

The 2017 San Francisco Tlingit & Haida Culture Celebration will be held on May 6th from 11:30 am to 4:30 pm at the Sycamore Club House, 635 Old Orchard Drive, Danville, CA 94526. This is the San Francisco council's largest event/fund raiser, featuring artists, guests from the central council, Alaska, singing and dancing. We celebrate our culture, history, strength and love of who we are. We encourage our members to participate by showing their art & crafts; we have some space for our members willing to host a demonstration or activity. This is our main fund raiser for our education scholarship, which we provide to an eligible candidate for educational purposes. We have scholarship forms on our website for easy access.

2017 Culture Celebration

Please take a look at our website (<http://www.sfthcc.org>) and Facebook page to obtain additional information and to ask questions. We have scholarship forms on our website for easy access. We ask for donations for auction items to build our scholarship fund. The location and date, May 6th from 11:30 am to 4:30 pm at the Sycamore Club House, 635 Old Orchard Drive, Danville, CA 94526. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share. The SFT&HCC will provide main dish (sliced turkey & ham) drinks and coffee.

Tribal Assembly

Our local delegates will be traveling to Juneau AK, April 19th-21 for Tribal Assembly. Our delegates work with others delegates representing villages and community councils. All delegates work on committees with the Central Council on resolutions and tribal business relating to our people. For questions regarding Tribal Assembly, please contact the Office of the President: Toll Free 800.344.1432 ext-7142

Please help us keep up to date on your contact information

We monitor our web page and Facebook page often. If you can provide updated information we can ensure you will get information on news, events and opportunities. We would like your feedback on continuing the news letter, we have had requests to go paperless and be green friendly. Most everyone has email, visits the web, facebook and Meetup. Please give us feedback via email, web page or Facebook.

Language Dictionaries and Databases

Tlingit Dictionary: Sealaska Heritage Institute's Dictionary of Tlingit is the product of years of documentation of the Tlingit language with assistance from fluent Elders. It's a must-have resource for language learners and for people who are interested in learning more about the Tlingit culture. This version is a searchable pdf. (Note: To jump to sections via the table of contents, click "view" "navigation panels" "bookmarks")

Tsimshian Dictionary: Sealaska Heritage Institute's Dictionary of Shm'algyack is the product of years of documentation of the Tsimshian language with assistance from fluent Elders. It's a must-have resource for language learners and for people who are interested in learning more about the Tsimshian culture. This version is a searchable pdf.

Haida Dictionary: Sealaska Heritage Institute's Dictionary of Alaskan Haida is the product of years of documentation of the Haida language with assistance from fluent Elders. It's a must-have resource for language learners and for people who are interested in learning more about the Haida culture. This version is a searchable pdf. (Note: To jump to sections via the table of contents, click "view" "navigation panels" "bookmarks")

Haida Phrasebook: The Alaskan Haida Phrasebook is the first book of its kind and the most comprehensive phrasebook to date for any Alaska Native language. It will be a great aid to new learners. The Alaskan Haida Phrasebook was compiled over a four-year period as part of SHI's ongoing Haida language project. The more than 4,000 sentences in this book cover some of the most common topics of Haida conversation, such as food, family, weather, health, traveling, fishing, working, music, and many others. It was written by Dr. Erma Lawrence, one of the few remaining fluent speakers of Alaskan Haida, and edited by linguist Dr. Jordan Lachler. Published by Sealaska Heritage Institute, 2010.
