

2018 Jackie Clark Memorial Education Scholarship (SFTHCC)

The San Francisco Tlingit & Haida Community Council supports higher education for its enrolled community tribal members with their annual scholarship. To be awarded at the annual SFTHCC picnic August 18, 2018. We would like to encourage our youth to apply without an application fee. However applications must be received electronically and or postmarked by June 1, 2018.

Criteria for eligibility

- Citizen of Central Council Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska, enrolled with San Francisco Tlingit and Haida Community Council. Or be able to provide full name and relation to enrolled family member on current SFTHCC membership list.
- Be a full time student attending or planning to attend an accredited community college, university or trade/technical school
- Traditional Introduction, This is your time to shine! (no word limit)
Ask a native elder or board member for help if needed. Asking for help from the board will NOT affect your consideration for the scholarship.
- Introduce yourself at the annual picnic 8/8/18 if you are awarded the scholarship.
- Submit completed application
- Submit one letter of recommendation from a teacher or mentor/community leader
(must not be related to applicant. Examples: couch, religious leader, employer, or volunteer group)
- Submit official transcripts from high school or colleges you have attended
- GPA 2.5
